

Acknowledgements

I would specially like to thank the following ZS hamkars whose collective-spirit and teamwork have resulted in the emergence of this book.

Jamshed Irani for his cooperation, patience and creative art-work with regard to the overall planning, layout and execution of the various diagrams as well as the attractive jacket specially designed for the book;

Bahadur Merwan for his valuable time, cooperation and creative advice with regard to all the illustrations and general layout of the book;

Burjor Poonawala for his constructive suggestions and for all the photographic positives which were made for the printing and illustration of the book;

Dady Poonawala for his behind-the-scene help in the production of the book;

Soli Engineer for his silent support and help towards the emergence of this book;

Jairaj Shetty for his patience, cooperation and commitment in giving the book a "special" touch;

Vera Mehta for her dedication, perseverance and innumerable suggestions in the overall planning, design and production of this book;

Perviz Shroff who has diligently typed, edited and meticulously proof-read numerous drafts of the manuscript over the past twelve weeks;

Shehnaz Munshi for her hard work, time spent and loyal dedication in assisting with the proof-reading and production of the book;

Ashok Karnik for his dedication, painstaking efforts and cheerful willingness in helping to execute a major share of the art-work neatly;

Silloo and Keki Limboowalla for their creative expertise and forthright help;

Thrity Stafford for her creative writing in the field of media publicity for the book;

Roshan, Porus, Simeen and Mehernaz Poonegar, Katie Panthaky, Jeanie Bharucha, Huzan, Anahita and Sheroo Kharas, Mahrukh Mobedji, Banoo Lashkari, Perin Cabinetmaker, Roda Mehta and Phiroze Vaid for their invaluable time and unstinting help with the additional typing, proof-reading and other ancillary services;

Bapsy Chinoy for her dedication, hard work and spontaneous support towards the realization of this project; and my brother Farrokh and his wife Yashfarrah for their constant "nagging" in encouraging me to put pen to paper.

I would also like to express my thanks to the innumerable well-wishers and supporters, whose behind-the-scene efforts have resulted in bringing to fruition the continuous growth of ZS.

Bahadur Gamadia for being my first spiritual mentor during the early years of my quest;

Shehnaz and Nozer Panthaky for their advice and the use of their premises which served as the ZS office in the early days; many thanks also to Shehnaz for her valuable contribution and sustained help rendered over the past years, especially in running the administrative affairs of ZS;

Burjor Bharucha for his unstinting silent support and invaluable advice proffered so readily over the years;

Phil Medora and Minoo Mody for their continued support and encouragement towards the steady growth and fulfilment of the ZS vision;

Dinshaw Merchant for being instrumental in bringing to fruition a number of the early ZS projects;

Pallon Mistry for the goodwill and encouragement given towards the ZS cause in the early years; and umpteen other people who have directly or indirectly encouraged and helped in the furtherance of the Zoroastrian message.

The illustrations in the book have been taken from: THE ART OF ANCIENT IRAN by Roman Ghirshman, Golden Press, New York.

Pages viii, xii-xiii, 9, 32, 36, 41, 47, 58, 65, 66, 71, 72, 74, 75, 76, 84, 92, 98, 109.

THE ART OF IRAN by André Godard, published by George Allen & Unwin Ltd., London.
Pages 4, 11, 35, 38, 49, 79, 101, 103, 106, 115.

IRAN: PARTHIANS AND SASANIANS by Roman Ghirshman, published by James and Hudson. Inside front cover, inside back cover, pages ii, iii, 7, 26, 130.

PERSIA, Volume 1, by Jean-Louis Huot, Frederick Muller Limited — London.
Page 30.

THE PERSIANS by Jim Hicks, Time Life Books.
Pages 19, 63, 85, 97, 122.