

Living Together with Understanding
A forum at the Nexus in the Dialogue between Science and Religion

Sunday, February 15, 2015
at 4:00 pm in the afternoon on Evolution Weekend

Location: The Mission Center of the Baltimore-Washington Annual Conference
The United Methodist Church
11711 East Market Place,
Fulton, MD 20759

Doors will open at 3:15 p.m. A light Sunday supper will be available for those attending, as well as door prizes (including a private tour at the Smithsonian in the Hall of Human Origins), a book sales table, and free papers for church discussion groups. The program will start promptly at 4:00 p.m.

For those who cannot attend in person, the event will be live streamed on the internet, encouraging small discussion groups in churches across the country and abroad to organize and participate. Those involved in such discussion groups will be able to email questions in to the four panelists.

To register, go to www.wesnex.org

Science, Story, Scripture:
Living Together with Understanding

Panel presentation followed by discussion, involving A Muslim Imam, a Traditional Christian, a Progressive Jew and an Unabashed Atheist Talking about God

Haytham Younis, a scholar in Arabic and Islamic Studies

Dennis Skocz, PhD, career diplomat and Adjunct Professor of Philosophy at UDC

Daniel Spiro, Attorney, author, and coordinator of the Washington Spinoza Society

John Shook, Ph.D., Instructor in science education at the University of Buffalo

Organized and Presented by WesleyNexus, Inc.
(a 501(c)(3) charitable organization)

Co-Sponsors:

The Institute on Religion in an Age of Science

The Clergy Letter Project

Lutheran Alliance for Faith, Science and Technology
Presbyterian Assoc. on Science, Technology & Christian Faith
Episcopal Network for Science, Technology & Faith
United Church of Christ Science and Technology Network
Institute for Science and Judaism