A decorative border with a repeating floral pattern of pink and blue flowers on a dark background, surrounding a light blue central area.

PARZOR CATALOGUE
2015

The Parzor Project, since 1999, has undertaken research in various fields, working towards the Promotion and Preservation of the Parsi Zoroastrian heritage and culture.

The items available in this catalogue are some of the fruits of our labour.

All proceeds go only towards furthering the research objectives.

PARSI EMBROIDERY

Parsi embroidery is an artistic and cultural amalgamation of four unique design traditions- Iranian, Indian, Chinese and European. This has resulted in a distinctive style which blends nature's creations, birds-real and exotic, flowers, plant life and animals with elements of mythology. These motifs are skillfully embroidered on kors (borders), garas (saris), jhablas (shirts) and ijars (pants).

Parsi embroidery is truly an intercultural art form, which has descended from Achaemenian times in an unbroken continuum. Originally the items came to the Parsis of India as precious pieces, ordered and imported from China. With the end of Parsi trading in China this link is now gone. Many stitches and techniques used in weaving the materials are now forgotten. It is imperative to ensure that this tradition of embroidery is not lost forever.

Its revival and survival has been undertaken by Parzor.

The revival of this craft not only serves the purpose of preserving this craft heritage but also encourages appreciation of the craft and also gives employment and livelihood to craft persons.
