

Expressions of Interest - 'Come work for Roy Hill'

- Even time FIFO roster
- Have an exciting career change with WA's 2018 Employer of the Year
- Be part of a safe, dynamic and friendly community

Roy Hill represents the next generation of integrated iron ore mine, rail and port operations in the Pilbara region of Western Australia. Situated approximately 340 kilometres south east of our port facility in Port Hedland, our world-class mine is the only independent iron ore business with West Australian majority ownership. With a defined mineralisation of more than 2.4 billion tonnes of high grade iron ore, Roy Hill is introducing a new wave of innovation, technology and knowledge to Australia's iron ore industry.

'The Real Us'

The Roy Hill mine is the largest single-pit iron ore mine in Australia and has an initial mine life of 17 years, with a planned extension of 12 years. Roy Hill is an owner-operator, conventional open pit, drill and blast, truck and excavator bulk mining operation.

We have a wide variety of roles to fill from Truck, Ancillary and Excavator Operators, Diesel Mechanics and Maintenance, to Process and Port Operators, Lab Techs and Metallurgists, Engineers and everything in between.

'The Real You'

You can be from all "walks of life". We don't expect you to have mining experience. What we do expect is that you appreciate and align with our culture, demonstrate our values of lead, care, think, perform and that you are looking to work for an innovative, world-class operation. If you have a positive mindset, are willing to work hard and perform as part of a committed and supportive team - apply now.

To express your interest just enter your name and contact details and upload your resume via our website. Our dedicated recruitment team will be in touch soon to discuss opportunities. Don't talk yourself out of applying if you think you are not qualified.

Please note, to be eligible to work at Roy Hill, you must be legally permitted to work permanently in Australia.

'The Real Offer'

Our people are the driving force behind our success. We are committed to attracting and retaining people who have the right mix of skills, knowledge, leadership and motivation to operate one of Australia's largest and most innovative integrated iron ore mining, rail and port operations. We reward performance and loyalty and offer a range of generous benefits.

We understand that there are many important areas in your life, and work is only one of these. We are committed to supporting you in all aspects, by providing even time site rosters, generous bonus schemes, industry-leading career support, learning and development opportunities, and lifestyle and recreation activities for you and your family to enjoy.

We respect and value the diversity of our people and believe our differences strengthen our business. We are committed to providing an inclusive work environment, where everyone is treated fairly and with respect. We are an equal opportunity employer and encourage applications from Indigenous Australians, women and minority groups.
