

NAMES OF LIBRARIES AND INSTITUTIONS WITH WHOM THE BOOK HAS BEEN SHARED AS OF SEPTEMBER 25, 2024: "A Sociological Survey of Rural Parsis in South-Gujarat, A Microscopic Study – With Compiled Data On The Parsis": Cashmera Percy Bhaya

This list has been prepared as Dr. Cashmera Bhaya's goal is to ensure that Zoroastrian organisations, welfare bodies, academic institutions, research scholars and individuals who are helping the community have access to this valuable resource.

Dr. Bhaya's book is readily accessible in major libraries across India:

1. The K R Cama Library in Mumbai.
2. The Asiatic Library in Mumbai.
3. The Central Library in Mumbai.
4. The F. D. Alpaiwalla Museum Library in Mumbai.
5. The J. N. Petit Institute Library in Mumbai.
6. The Jawaharlal Nehru Library in the University of Mumbai, Kalina in Mumbai.
7. University of Mumbai, Fort in Mumbai.
8. The Tata Institute of Social Sciences Library in Mumbai.
9. Library in the Dadar Athornan Institute in Mumbai.
10. Library in the Culture House of the Islamic Republic of Iran in Mumbai. (Mr. Mohammad Reza Fazel, Director General of Cultural Affairs Ministry, Cultural House of the Islamic Republic of Iran).
11. The First Dastoor Meherjirana Library in Navsari.
12. The Central Library of Pune.
13. The Central Library of Nagpur.
14. Smt. Hansa Mehta Library in Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda in Vadodara.
15. Gift Book Collection Library, Department of Sociology, Faculty of Arts in Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda in Vadodara.
16. The Bhaikaka Library in Sardar Patel University in Vallabh Vidyanagar.
17. University Central Library in Veer Narmad South Gujarat University of Surat in Surat.
18. Parzor Archives in Delhi.
19. Library in Lady Shri Ram College, University of Delhi in Delhi.

20. Library in the Tibet House in Delhi.
21. Temple of Understanding, an international Interfaith institution in Delhi. (Dr. Karan Singh, President Emeritus).
22. Bahai Centre of India in Delhi. (Dr. A. K. Merchant, Head).

Internationally, the book can be found in libraries associated with:

1. SOAS University of London in London. (Dr. Mariano Errichiello).
2. The Zoroastrian Association of Houston in USA. (Ms. Aban Rustomjee).
3. The Zoroastrian Association of Greater New York in USA. (Mr. Lovji Cama).
4. The Zoroastrian Society of Ontario in Canada. (Ms. Armaity Homavazir).
5. The Ontario Zoroastrian Community Foundation in Canada. (Mr. Neville Patrawala).
6. Department of Near and Middle Eastern Civilizations in the University of Toronto in Canada. (FEZANA Professor Miguel Angel Andres-Toledo).

The book has been shared with key Parsi institutions:

1. World Zoroastrian Organisation in London. (Mr. Rumi Sethna, Chairman).
2. World Zoroastrian Organisation Trust in Mumbai. (Mr. Dinshaw Tamboly, Chairman).
3. World Zoroastrian Organisation Trust in Navsari. (Mr. Aspi Ambapardiwala, Managing Trustee).
4. Zoroastrian Charity Funds of Hong Kong, Canton & Macao in Hong Kong. (Mr. Neville Shroff, President).
5. World Zarathushti Chamber of Commerce in Dubai. (Mrs. Meher K. Bhesania, Global Director).
6. World Zarathushti Chamber of Commerce in Mumbai. (Captain Percy Master, President).
7. The Bombay Parsi Punchayet in Mumbai. (Mr. Viraf Mehta, Chairman).
8. Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy Charity Fund in Mumbai. (Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy, Chairman).

9. Parsee Vegetarian and Temperance Society in Mumbai. (Darayus S. Desai, President).
10. Surat Parsi Panchayat in Surat. (Dr. Homi Doodhwalla, President).
11. Parsi Panchayat Charitable Fund, Vadodara. (Mr. Phiroz S. Patel, President).
12. Ahmedabad Parsi Panchayat in Ahmedabad. (Mr. Cyrus Sabavala, Trustee and the resource person of WZO Trusts for North Gujarat).
13. Delhi Parsi Anjuman in Delhi. (Mrs. Ava Khullar, President).

The book has also been shared with individuals involved in Zoroastrian studies and community welfare programmes, with some Vada Dasturjis and few Ervad Sahebs in India, Zoroastrian and non-Zoroastrian friends and well-wishers of the Parsi community and with many members of the author's family