ANAHITA DHONDY

Anahita Dhondy is an award-winning chef, bestselling author, and a passionate advocate for sustainable and traditional Indian cuisine. A graduate of IHM Aurangabad and Le Cordon Bleu, London, she began her career with the Taj Group before becoming Chef Partner at SodaBottleOpenerWala, where she played a key role in reviving and modernizing Parsi food

She is widely recognized for promoting indigenous grains, zero-waste practices, and regional Indian ingredients. Anahita has represented India at global forums such as the EAT Forum and Chefs' Manifesto (Stockholm & London), and was invited to showcase millet-based recipes at the G20 Summit and by the UN FAO during the International Year of Millets.

Known for her warm, engaging storytelling, Anahita's digital content and recipes have built a strong, loyal community of food lovers and home cooks that follow her on Instagram @anahitadhondy. She has appeared as a guest judge on MasterChef India and MasterChef Tamil and frequently collaborates with embassies and culinary organizations on international projects.

Her debut book, The Parsi Kitchen (HarperCollins), is a national bestseller. Her second book, centered on millets and modern cooking, is set to release soon. Honored with accolades including Forbes Asia 30 Under 30, Conde Nast Traveller's Innovator of the Year, and CNN-News18's Indian of the Year – Hospitality, Anahita continues to inspire through her unique blend of culinary tradition, innovation, and storytelling—while embracing her newest and most cherished role as a mom.

KAZWEEN MARKER

Kazween Marker is a Melbourne-based property professional and Founder and Principal of Marker Realty, a boutique firm specialising in residential property management, leasing, and investment consultancy. With over a decade of experience and strong local knowledge, she is known for her strategic, client-focused approach that helps owners and investors make confident property decisions.

A respected property management specialist, vendors advocate, speaker, and MC, Kazween combines professional expertise with clear guidance and genuine care.
